Mary MacKillop Catholic College
WAKELEY

GIRLS YEARS 7-12 • ESTABLISHED 1991 • 935 STUDENTS
OPEN DAY 2016: 9 MARCH 4.30–7.30PM

St Mary of the Cross MacKillop based her life on the ideals of respect for every person, justice for the poor, trust in God and the need for every child to have a high-quality Catholic education. Mary MacKillop Catholic College Wakeley (MMCCW) strives at all times to live out St Mary’s vision.

Founded by the Sisters of St Joseph, the college provides a high-quality education for young women in south western Sydney. The charism of Mary MacKillop is the commitment to provide an all-round education focused on the development of the whole person. Central to this focus is a vertical homeroom structure which combines students from Year 7 to 12 with the aim of building community.

MMCCW provides a broad range of academic and vocationally-based courses. There is a vibrant Learning Resource Department responsible for Special Education, English as a Second Language and Gifted Education programs. There is also an extensive range of co-curricular opportunities available to the students. These include Tournament of the Minds, Debating, an instrumental program, Public Speaking, and Dance.

Students at MMCCW come from more than 70 different ethnic backgrounds. The college has a history of high-quality student achievement. A particular feature is the strong Careers and Transition Program which results in all students leaving to further education at University or TAFE or directly into employment.

MMCCW enjoys a fine reputation in its local community.
